

AGRC Code of Conduct for All Meetings and Events

- Come to all meetings and events with a positive attitude and an open mind.
- Treat all members with respect during meetings and outside of meetings.
- Turn cell phones to vibrate. If you must take a call, please take the conversation outside.
- Talk one at a time. Wait to be recognized by the Chairperson.
- Address any concerns about the discussion or the meeting to the Chairperson. It is the Chairperson's job to bring the meeting to order. It is the Sgt-at-Arm's job to maintain order.
- Avoid side conversations during meetings.
- Be patient when listening to others speak and do not interrupt them.
- Members need to stay on the topic being discussed. When a topic or agenda item has been discussed fully do not bring up the same subject again at the current meeting.
- Don't discuss personal issues during the meeting.
- Don't make threats or rude comments to the other members. Profanity is never appropriate.
- New business agenda items should be added in writing at the beginning of each meeting as provided on the sign-in table.
- Be respectful of other people's ideas or situation when they talk. Do not judge, there are no bad ideas and all need to be heard.
- Problems brought to the membership should have a proposed solution.
